Second Race--Kinglet, Judge Mor row, Bernld. Third Race--Gutta Percha. Sa

hills. Straus's best. Fourth Race-Domino, Henry Navarre, Dobbins.

Fifth Race--Rubicon, Don Alonz Ben Lomond.

Bixth Race--No selections

The Withers Stakes is the feature marks the reappearance of Domino, the greatest two-year-old this country ever bearing perhaps Tremont, and it will also furnish a good line on the repective abilities of the three-year-olds. Domino, Dobbins, Henry of Navarre Rubleon and Nahma are the starters It only needs Senator Grady to make the field perfect. Nevertheless, a good race is bound to ensue. Domino has no en raced, and it is reported that he worked a mile in 1.421-2 at Graveshe worked a mile in 1.421-2 at Graves-end on Sunday. If this is true, then the Keene crack should win. It is only a question of fitness, for he belongs to a class way above Dobbins, Henry of Na-varre and the others, notwithstanding they are cracking good coits. At the distance Henry of Navarre will probably beat Dobbins for the place. The Morris mare, Nahma, should acquit herseif well against the coits.

The Casanova StaRes, for two-year-mare, Natha, shows against the colts.

The Casanova Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, looks well nigh a gift for Guta Percha, though she concedes subilia, Applause. Ella Reed and other fast ones ixely pounds each, She is certainly that much better than any of those gifted against her. The opening that a lake for two-year-olds, and a lake fair ich will safet.

Einelt, the eccentric Judge Morrow,

Kinglet, the eccentric Judge Morrow, Herald, Blitzen and Count will go well in the second race, and the sprint, with Don Alonzo. Discount, Wah Jim, Ferrier, Ben Lomond, Rubicon and other fast ones engaged, will furnish a rattling contest. A race for maidens of all ages winds up the card.

The track will be dry and fast, The entries and selections are as follows:

JERSEY WOMEN CAN'T VOTE The Courts Decide that Their Ballots Do Not Count.

New Jersey courts have just decided that women have no right to vote. This decision is the result of a contest His German Is the Two Thousand Guineas, the New His Blake for Road Commissioner in Struck out of all engagements at Ascot The election was held April 4, 1893, and Mr. Blake received forty-two votes, twenty of which were east by women. Mr. Allison received twenty-six votes, of which only three were cast by women freeholders.

This right of male citizens to vote, justice Beasley holds, cannot be extended any more than it can be abridged by legislative enactments. Under this decision women will be debarred from voting for school trustees in the future. Mr. Blake, who has been acting as Road Commissioner for more than a year, will now have to turn over the effice to Mr. Allison. women were thrown out, and Mr. Allison When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The weird tales one hears of fortune won on the turf outrival the famous stories of Baron Munchausen. Byron McClelland must by this time be a erning his winnings are true. It is the writer, "to sit down and theorize stated that he won $75,000 over Cleo- and figure how games might have been patra colt's victory a few days ago, won when it is all over. Indeed, the parts colts victory a few days ago, specific to the collection of the commoner yesterday and fabulous sums on other good things he has cut loose. McClelland is having a lucky season. There can be no doubt about that. But the reports of his winnings are greatly exaggerated. He says so, and he, of all others, should know. so, and he, of all others, should know.

Speaking of bookmakers, reminds one

Midgelev is riding in poor form. His finish on Roche called forth many caustic comments, but, in justice to the ladit must be said that he is recovering from a fit of illness, and is physically incapable of riding a strong finish.

C. Heston is a remarkable lad with the whip. He whirls it in the air like a flail, and every time it descends upon the horse you can wager that the ani-mal feels it. He seems to get more out of a horse with the whip than any other lockey. To his energetic work was due The Commoner's victory yesterday.

The fact that Tormentor finished way back in the ruck is no indication that he is not good and fit to race. He was badly interfered with a furiong from home. If Garrison could have gotten him through Tormentor would have been fighting with the leaders.

Umpire Elmslie made his debut this season on the Polo Grounds yesterday, and his work was admirable.

Speaking of bookmakers, reminds one that these gentry have as many moods and vagaries as a capricious woman. When the Jockey Club abolished 1-2-3 betting, a howl went up from the ring. Now all hands are signing petitions praying that 1-2-3 betting be not reestablished, for it opens the way to fraud. Poor, simple, honest-minded penday, his search would not be prolonged further than the betting ring at Morris Park.

Senator Grady and Matt Byrnes are to have a try at the American Derby. The Senator is said to be a grand specimen of the race horse, and has improved wonderfully in looks and action since last year. Garrison will go on to ride him, and Willie Midgley will pilot Matt Byrnes. Marcus Daly holds a strong hand.

Senator Grady and Matt Byrnes are to fixed the fixed proposed with the New York Leam officials isn't worth knowing. Van Zant is an expert, too, in working both ends of the string, as will be remembered when two years ago he signed with New York, but was "induced" to continue as an amateur (?) with the Staten Island club. On the floor of the Stock Exchange this time $350 was raised to "persuade" Van Zant to remain with the Oritanis.
